

Rehumanising the Way We Travel, Live & Connect

Presence over Distraction

Imagine a trip where you don't need to use your phone or perform for the camera. You just live it, properly disconnect, & someone quietly captures the truth of it.

A UNIQUE PRESENCE-FOCUSED TRAVEL EXPERIENCE

Return home with memories that feel as alive
as when you lived them.

Why exists

Travel slower. Feel deeper.

In a world of noise, chasing perfect shots, we've forgotten how to truly feel. Through mindful travel & soulful reflection, you will disconnect fully and reconnect to your senses, your life story, and the moment you're in. You'll travel lighter, see clearer, and return home with more than photos - you'll return calmer & with peace of mind. That's healing.

It's not just about seeing more places...
it's also about rediscovering yourself.

Quality over Quantity

The Promise

Not a Tour. Not a Photoshoot. A Promise to Be Present.

Put the phone away. No google maps. No pressure. No selfies. I'll hold the camera, and the flow, so you can simply be there.

✨ Fully Personalised. Entirely You.

There's no fixed itinerary, no checklists to cross. Every trip is fully personalised in our pre-journey call: together we decide how much structure or surprise you want. You'll simply be in the moment - I'll take care of the rest.

For the ones ready to slow down

If you've lived at 120% for too long, this is your pause... a safe space to be seen, to breathe, and to simply be.

A Gift Beyond Things

Whether it's a surprise for your partner, or a love letter to yourself, I can help you design an experience that becomes a memory of care. Not through material things, but through presence.

No Shortcuts: Growth takes Time

Our Story

It started with a frustration I felt on every solo trip: I could either be present or capture the moment... never both. I was always choosing between either living the memory or documenting it.

So I went searching for a better way. I travelled slower, experimented with photography, and learned how powerful it is when someone else holds the camera and the navigation, so you can hold the moment.

That pursuit became alive.unposed... a way to help others travel with depth, breathe, reconnect, and still return home with beautiful, meaningful memories.

I now specialise in Malta, Dubai, and Thailand - my past, present, and future - but I'm always open to exploring new places together, alive and unposed.

No Shortcuts: Growth takes Time

The ethos of alive.unposed is built on seven simple truths, each representing the colours of the rainbow. Together, they form a way of travelling, and living, that invites you to slow down, feel deeper, and experience moments as they naturally unfold. Every journey is designed to honour these values, so your memories aren't manufactured... they're lived.
